Call for Abstracts: 2017 Donald O. Fedder Student Poster Competition

Attention all students, researchers, and public health enthusiasts! The Maryland Public Health Association (MdPHA) is pleased to announce a call for abstracts for our 2017 Annual Conference and Student Poster Competition! Every year, students from graduate and undergraduate programs across the state of Maryland present their research on current or emerging public health issues. This year's theme is "Changing Climate, Changing Health."

2017 Annual Conference Details

When: Friday, October 6th 9am to 4:30pm

Where: University of Maryland, College Park

Abstract submission

When submitting the abstract, please be sure to provide complete information for the presenter (name, mailing address, email, and telephone number). The abstract should include title, lead author and co-authors with their affiliation, research objective, study design, population studied, principal findings, conclusions, implications for policy, delivery, or practice (especially within Maryland), and funding source (if applicable). Be sure to limit the body of the abstract to 300 words. Please submit to Sanchari Ghosh at ghoshs1@umaryland.edu. Due: September 13th, 2017 11:59 PM.

Evaluation of abstracts

All abstracts are to follow the format specified above. A committee from the MdPHA membership will evaluate the abstracts based on the following criteria:

- (1) Quality and originality
- (2) Potential significance to the field of public health
- (3) Timeliness
- (4) Clarity of writing and presentation
- (5) Relevance in Maryland

Notification

Applicants will be notified by September 22th, 2017 as to whether your abstract is selected for presentation. If accepted, you are expected to register for the meeting and be available to present your poster.

Awards

- 1st place: $200 and free annual membership to MdPHA
- 2nd place: $100 and free annual membership to MdPHA
- 3rd place: $50 and free annual membership to MdPHA
